Dear Mrs Romero

I am enclosing my resume in this job application for the freshly advertised Registered Nurse post at Unity Medical Institute. I believe that my skills and knowledge match your requirements very well and my extra qualifications in critical care nursing makes me the perfect candidate for this position.

Some vital relevant points that might help you with your decision are:

- I am a Bachelor of Science graduate in Nursing from Columbia University, New York and I possess Critical Care Nursing (CCN) certificate.
- I have experience taking care of a wide range of patients, right from new-born to old people in different circumstances including contagious diseases, oncology, medicinal, ICU, post-operative and emergency branches.
- Some of my areas of proficiency comprise of CCU and Intensive Care Unit, emergency dealings and counseling sessions with patients and their families, intravenous therapy, and general support and help.
- I have proved over time that I am a very motivated nurse along with the capability to stay focused and self-governing in extremely stressful working conditions.

I strongly believe that my dedication towards patient care and the skill to work as an integrated part of a medical team would let me to make an important contribution to the custom of fineness at Unity Medical Institute. A demanding work-place like yours will provide me the chance to utilize my skills to the best of level and gain more knowledge as a medical care expert.

I would be glad to get a chance in the interview process for this post and talk about the ways I can meet your needs as a nurse. Please call me via telephone or e-mail to fix a mutually suitable date and time for the meeting.

Thank you for your consideration and valuable time.
